

When Friends Are Done Pretending

When I play outside I can have fun with my friends. We play superheros, pokemon and other fun games. When the bell rings I have to stop playing pretend games

Choice 1

I stop playing pretend games and superheros and go into the school. I do what is next on my schedule.

Choice 1

My teacher is happy. I get to keep tokens on my strip and I get my work done for the day. I am having a good day at school. Friends will want to play with me tomorrow.

Choice 2

I keep playing the game in the school, I keep talking about superheros and games. I do not stop talking about our outside game

Choice 2

My teacher will be angry at me. My teacher will tell me to take a token. I will not get to spend time with my teacher at the end of the day. My friends will not want to play my game on the playground anymore. I will be in trouble.

Done Playing Consequences!

Playing on the playground is fun.

I can pretend to play superhero's or pokemon.

I can also play tag or play on the swings or on the climber.

When the bell rings I have to go in.

When I go in to school I can no longer pretend to be superhero's or pokemon.

Superhero's and pokemon must stay on the playground.

If I talk about superheros or pokemon in the classroom my teacher will be angry.

Sometimes my friends do not want to play pretend games anymore.

If I keep pretending when they are all done they will not want to play with me tomorrow.

I will not pretend play inside of school.
